RECOMMENDATION OF THE MAGISTRATE JUDGE

In this 42 U.S.C. § 1983 action, Antonio D. Davis ["Davis"], a state inmate, challenges the use of alleged false information in the determination of his custody classification level

Upon review of the complaint, the court concludes that the plaintiff's claims against the Alabama Department of Corrections, the Alabama Board of Pardons and Paroles, and the Jefferson County Probation and Parole Office are due to be dismissed prior to service of process in accordance with the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B)(i).<sup>1</sup>

DISCUSSION

The law is well-settled that state agencies are absolutely immune from suit. Papasan v. Allain, 478 U.S. 265 (1986). Thus, the plaintiff's claims against the Alabama Department of Corrections and the Alabama Board of Pardons and Paroles are frivolous as they are “based on an indisputably meritless legal theory.” Neitzke v. Williams, 490 U.S. 319, 327 (1989).<sup>2</sup> Moreover, the Jefferson County Probation and Parole Office “is not a legal entity and, therefore, is not subject to suit or liability under section 1983.” Dean v. Barber, 951 F.2d 1210, 1214 (11th Cir. 1992). The claims presented by the plaintiff against the aforementioned defendants are therefore subject to summary dismissal pursuant to the directives of 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B)(i).

<sup>1</sup>A prisoner who is allowed to proceed in forma pauperis in this court will have his complaint screened in accordance with the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B). This screening procedure requires the court to dismiss a prisoner's civil action prior to service of process if it determines that the complaint is frivolous, malicious, fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, or seeks monetary damages from a defendant who is immune from such relief. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B)(i)-(iii).

CONCLUSION

Accordingly, it is the RECOMMENDATION of the Magistrate Judge that:

1. The plaintiff's claims against the Alabama Department of Corrections, the Alabama Board of Pardons and Paroles, and the Jefferson County Probation and Parole Office be dismissed with prejudice pursuant to the directives of 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B)(i).
2. The Alabama Department of Corrections, the Alabama Board of Pardons and Paroles, and the Jefferson County Probation and Parole Office be dismissed as defendants in this cause of action.
3. This case, with respect to the false information claim against Richard Allen and Deborah Stutts, be referred back to the undersigned for appropriate proceedings.

Recommendation. Any objections filed must specifically identify the findings in the Magistrate Judge's Recommendation to which the party is objecting. Frivolous, conclusive or general objections will not be considered by the District Court. The parties are advised that this Recommendation is not a final order of the court and, therefore, it is not appealable.

Failure to file written objections to the proposed findings and advisements in the Magistrate Judge's Recommendation shall bar the party from a de novo determination by the District Court of issues covered in the Recommendation and shall bar the party from attacking on appeal factual findings in the Recommendation accepted or adopted by the District Court except upon grounds of plain error or manifest injustice. *Nettles v.
